

OCTOBER 20-26 IS

NATIONAL LEAD POISONING PREVENTION WEEK!

The Central New Jersey Lead & Healthy Homes Coalition and the Monmouth County Department of Health and Human Services are hosting a free webinar series October 22-24, 2024 to equip parents and individuals who work with young children with the knowledge and practical tools needed to prevent lead exposure and create safer, healthier environments for children. Recordings will be available following the live webinars.

12:00 pm Tuesday, Oct. 22
Understanding Lead Poisoning
Sources, risks, and health impacts of lead exposure.

5:30 pm Wednesday, Oct. 23
Prevention Strategies
Preventative measures to reduce lead exposure.

12:00 pm Thursday, Oct. 24
Healthy Homes
The principles of a healthy home to ensure long-term health and safety.

Register Now!
Click here.

This series is for
Parents, Central NJ residents, and professionals who work with young children, including childcare providers, educators, and community health workers.

For more information:
(732) 431-7456

