

Readington Township Board of Education Fundraiser Proposal

Name of Applicant(s): Lauren Mahoney, Jodi Rehrig, Emily Bengels, Lauren Greenberg on behalf of Destination Imagination Members/Parents

Date of Application: October 5, 2015

Title of Fundraiser: Readington Township Destination Imagination HBS JAM

Date of Fundraiser: Friday, February 5, 2016, snow date, Friday, February 26, 2016

Recipient of Funds: Student Activity Account - Destination Imagination subaccount - to defray or cover the costs of registration and housing at Global Finals in Knoxville, Tennessee (for any qualifying teams).

Activity: The JAM is a dance with a DJ and games at HBS for 4th and 5th graders. DI parent volunteers will chaperone the event and have several stations of carnival-type games for students to play in addition to the DJ/dance area. Bake sale snacks and water, donated by DI families, will be available for purchase for $1.00 each.

DI families would like to charge an admission price not to exceed $10.00 for the event. There will also be a suggested donation of one item to be donated to the Flemington Food pantry.

All profits to benefit the RMS & HBS DI teams.

Name of Applicant(s):	Kristin Poroski and Paul Yunos
Date of Application	October 8, 2015
Title of Fundraiser	Cheerleading Competition
Date of Fundraiser	January 27, 2016 (Snow day January 29, 2016)
Recipient of Funds	.

The RMS cheerleading coaches want to host a cheer competition by inviting 5-7 local schools to compete. The new gym is where the competition will be held. Mats will be placed on the floors and 3 judges will score the competition. While schools are waiting to compete, they will help held in adjunct classrooms. The old gym will be used for teams to warm up prior to competing. There will be an admission fee of $5.00 and the proceeds will support readington athletics. T-shirts will be sold in advance to the cheer teams. The purpose of this is to showcase the cheerleading program and to bring the sending districts together for a friendly competition.

Principals: Please email this form to The Superintendent's Office at least one week prior to a scheduled Board of Education meeting.
