6. New Business

- New Jersey State Legislature Bills S-1191 & A2974

Whereas Bills A2974/S1191 provide for counties to adopt a resolution or ordinance as appropriate to its form of government, establishing a county-wide purchasing system for providing custodial services, food services or both, to school districts with the county and

Whereas, school districts already participate in cooperative purchasing through Educational Services Commissions, the Education and Information Resource Center (EIRC) State Contracts and various other cooperative purchasing ventures between schools and schools and municipalities. County government is not necessarily informed regarding the particular needs of school districts and is probably not the central source to be using for school cooperative purchases.

Now therefore be it Resolved the Readington Township Board of Education hereby opposes passage of Bills A2974/S1191.
